It's a long,
long road . . .

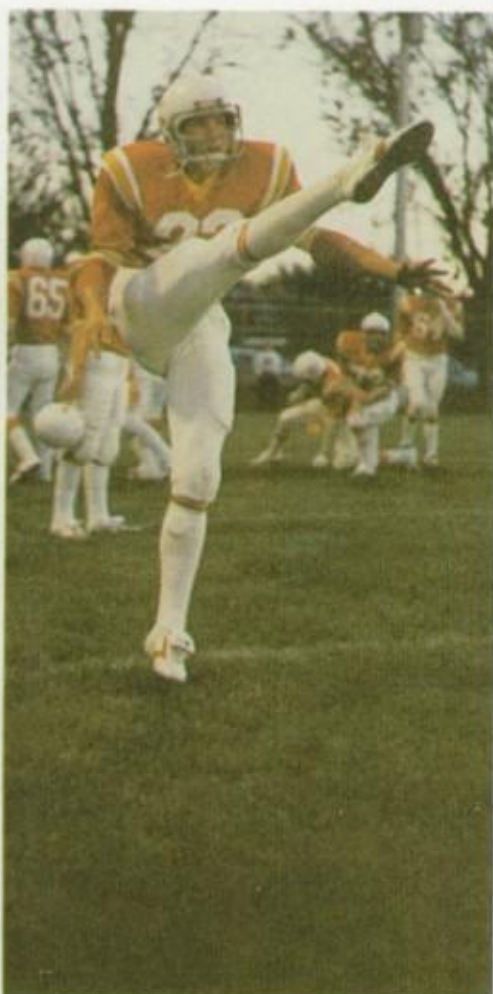

... from which
there is no return.

Words by Bob Russell. From the song, "He Ain't Heavy ... He's My Brother" (C) 1969 Harrison Music Corporation/Jenny Music Inc. (Music by Bobby Scott, Words by Bob Russell). Used by permission.

There is no longer
time to reflect upon the past . . .

... we can only look to the future
and make plans.

Time spent with friends will always be remembered . . .

. . . And time spent alone will never be forgotten.

Together for a long time

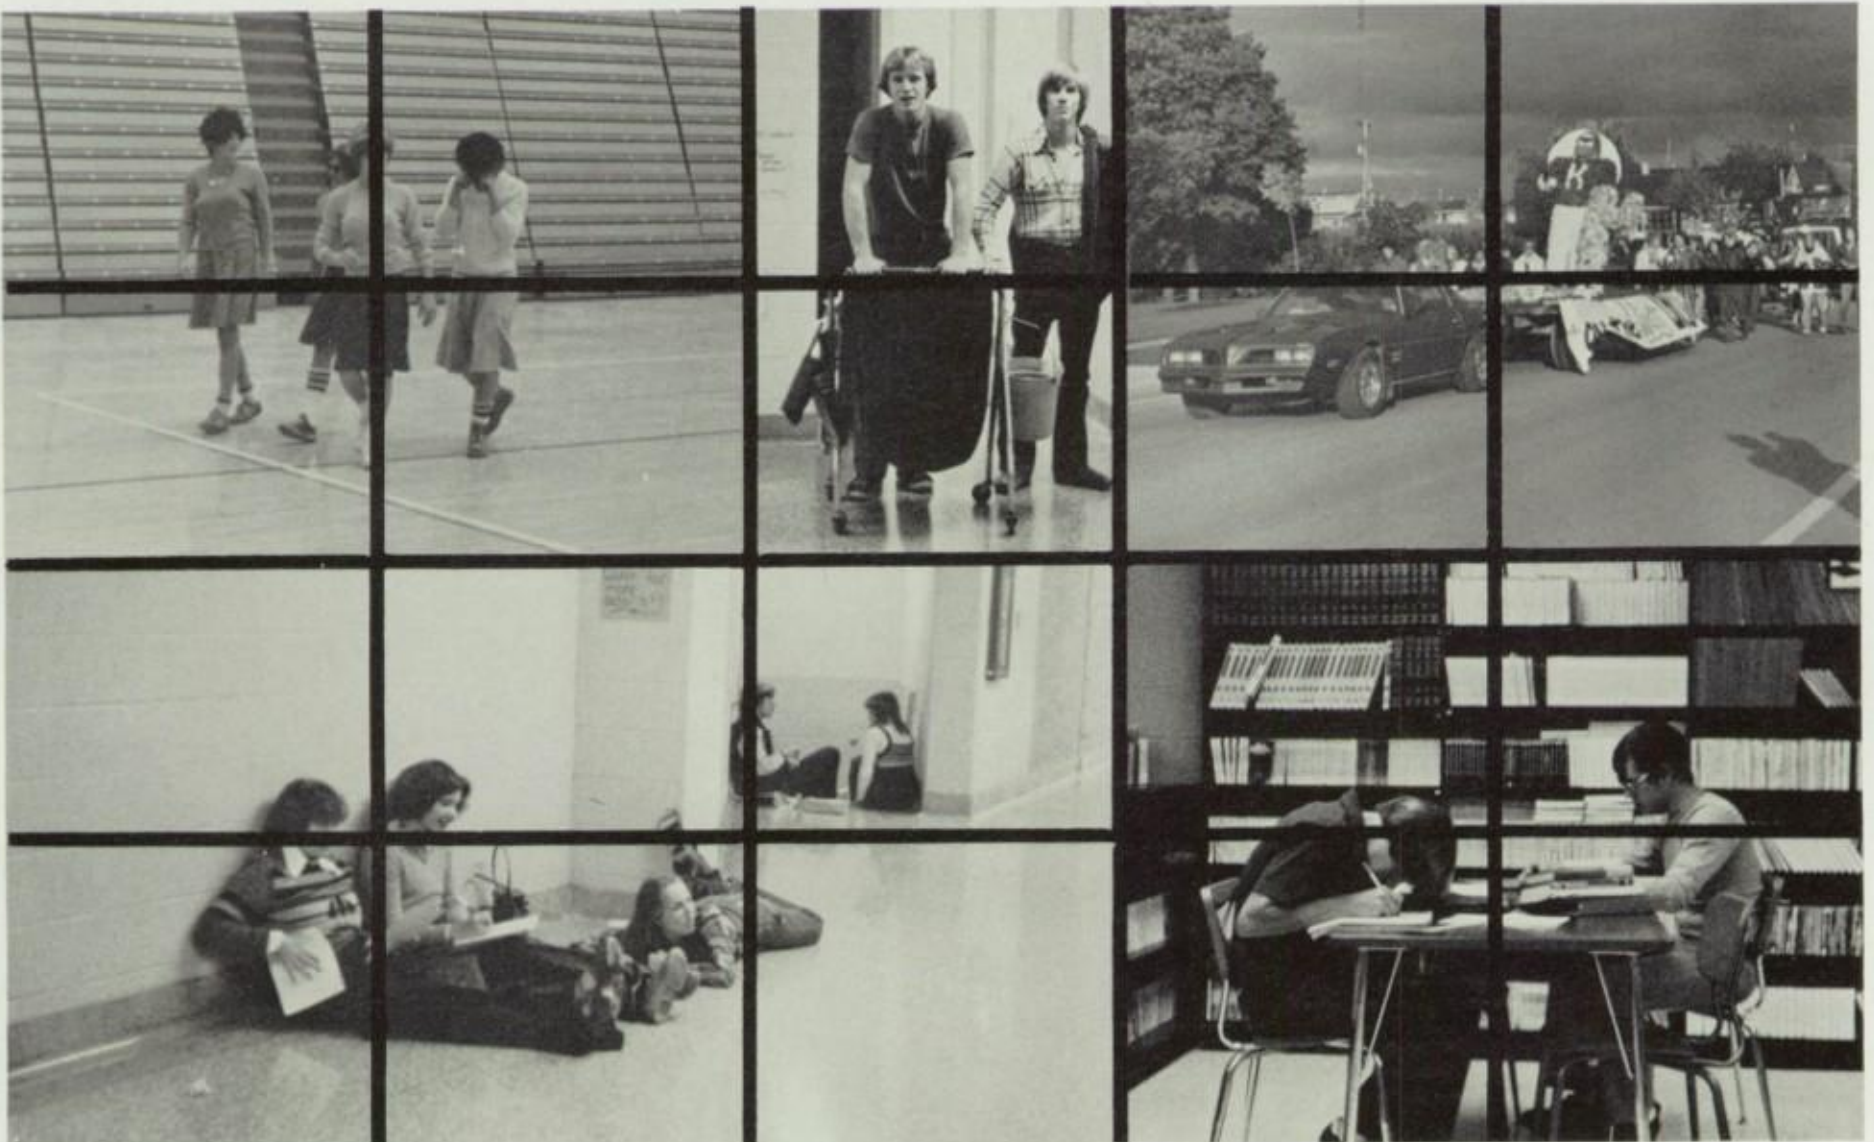

Sharing memories that will last forever.

Looking back to
when it all began, we see the changes that took place.

The girls' J.V. basketball team, coached by Miss Bournoville, maintained a "never quit" attitude all season. The girls spent a great deal of time working on the press and on layups. Its most satisfying game involved holding AHS-W scoreless in the second quarter while netting 19 and winning the game.

1. K. Van Krey fires a shot while Neenah looks amazed. 2. N. Mulry gets one of her many rebounds. 3. Way to fight for the rebound, but aren't you both on the same team? 4. P. Smits looks disgusted with Appleton West. 5. S. Vander Velden grimaces as she loses control of the ball.

1. Smash that ball, J. Handrich! 2. B. Bolwerk struggles for a pin. 3. Around the defense, S. Van Roy. 4. L. Angell shoots for two. 5. D. Verhagen s-t-r-e-t-c-h-e-s for the ball. 6. J. Everyone on the varsity wrestling team dedicated himself to the sport this year, according to Coach Gehl. He was impressed with the performance of underclassmen on the team. At the triple dual in New London, KHS recorded three exciting wins in one day over Valders, New London, and Manitowoc Roncalli.

1. K. Sonleitner "moves out" from underneath. 2. Break him down, D. Greaves. 3. Coach Gehl gives instructions to a wrestler. 4. We need a pin, S. Sanderfoot! 5. J. King has a tight hold on his opponent.

Beating Oshkosh North to remain undefeated in the conference really excited the J.V.s. This year's team was composed of outstanding wrestlers and individuals.

1. Shoot out from underneath, J. Frassetto. 2. J. Bos makes an attempt to pin his man. 3. M. Bolwerk takes down his man. 4. Just one more shoulder, Kimberly!

Coach Wippich stated mid-way through the boys' varsity basketball season, "Up to this point in the season, our players are working as hard as any undefeated team. For this I thank them and admire them." Interestingly, the hardest-fought games were losses to Menasha and to Neenah when the Kimberly cagers displayed great heart.

1. D. Verhagen goes for a basket. 2. M. Hietpas, gets cornered. 3. J. Polman intimidates West offense. 4. L. Klein fires over defender. 5. Outside shot by Tim Harke.

Boys' Reserve Basketball: M. Lamers, K. Hanegraaf, R. Vandehey, J. Vander Zanden, S. Heid, M. Albers, R. Asman, J. Swick, Mgr. L. Dietzen, Coach B. Repulski.

The 1978-79 boys' junior reserve basketball team has had a very successful season and possesses the talent to have a good varsity season next year. 1. Rebound! 2. Outside shot by B. Janssen. 3. M. Diedrich prepares for action. 4. R. Hiroskey towers over defense. 5. D. Vandehey drives for a basket. 6. Down the line for T. Hartjes.

Watching many of the players improve upon their basketball skills and become very confident in their play pleased Mr. Shepich, boys' J.V. basketball coach. The most exciting game was the Kaukauna game when the J.V.'s won in the last five seconds after losing by ten at half time. Mr. Shepich ranks this team an excellent practice team, always trying to do its best.

Gymnasts have another good year

The 1978-79 KHS gymnastics team is probably the best team the Fox Valley Association has ever fielded. The girls are not only very good, but easy to coach and extremely hard-working. The unity of the team has aided them in pressure situations. In the meet with AHS-W the gymnasts really sparkled.

1. K. Adams concentrates on her next move. 2. A good floor routine, K. King 3. Keep your balance, J. Belongea! 4. V. Verhoeven is pleased with her routine. 5. S. Bohne shows grace on the balance beam. 6. C. Giesbers flying through the air with the greatest of ease.

The theme of time was chosen this year because in high school time is so precious. We students might not think so now, but wait until we're out of high school, remembering all the things that happened to us here. True, some were unpleasant, but the good times all of us experienced will always be remembered.

We would really like to thank all those who helped us these past six months, especially Mrs. Velguth who let us put our ideas on paper, Carol Brigham for designing our artwork, and the Kimet Staff.

Girls' strive for State; go to State.

The definite desire to win and a die-hard spirit to come from behind to win the final sectional game against Bayport highlighted the varsity girls' softball season. However, the loss to Madison La Follette at State brought the team together as a family. The team jelled at the end of the season and went to state for the first time.

The J.V. girls' softball team attacked the ball well all season. In the 23-2 win over Kaukauna all the girls played at least one inning or got at least one hit. All the girls pulled for one another. The coach, Rick Van Eperen, especially remembers the smiles on the girls' faces after their victories.

G. Hietpas reaching for the sky.

The 1979 boys' track team was in contention in every meet. Their first triangular meet win in four years came against Appleton West and East, always a sweet victory. Among the outstanding performers on the team were Tony Vanden Heuvel, Dan Schultz, Kevin Hanegraaf, Brad Zoelk, Greg Hietpas, John Belongea, and Lee Nagan.

The continued performance improvement in each match throughout the 1979 season particularly pleased Mr. Perry, Boys' tennis coach. In a rebuilding year, the upset victory over Appleton East was very satisfying. Joe Lewandowski and Mark Wachtendonk starred in doubles and Tom Ciha in singles.
